Metallic

Metallics have been big for a while now, but in 2018 this trend is set to get even bigger. And whilst brass looks to be the go-to choice, gold and rose gold are gaining more and more popularity. Don't be afraid to mix and match colours, either – layering different metallics together will create a truly dazzling look.

Graham & Brown colour of the year Penelope, £32 for 2.5 litres, Graham & Brown. grahambrown.com

Pink tray, £19.95, Audenza. audenza.com

Bella Freud 1970 cushion, £160, Amara. amara.com

Natural

We love the look and feel of raw, tactile textures, such as woods, stones, and pure cottons. They bring an element of the outdoors inside, and their muted tones create a calm and peaceful atmosphere – just what you want to come home to after a long day.

Perth fabric collection, from £49.50 per m, Ian Mankin.

frenchicpaint.co.uk

Ex.T Eileen 75 basin and console, from £720, Fretwork cabinets, from £337, and Storage mirror, from £483, CP Hart. cphart.co.uk

Decorative panel radiators, from £508 (white) and £636 (colour) each, Bisque. bisque.co.uk

A new wave of Scandi-living has arrived, and it's perfect for those who prefer a more minimalist style – simple, clean lines with just a few pops of colour – in their home. To achieve this look, start with white as a base and be selective with the number of colours you use in a room – our favourite combination is ochre yellow paired with a bold blue.
